

Todo sobre España

ALL ABOUT SPAIN

A SPANISH CELEBRATION AT MISHKENOT SHA'ANANIM

A JOURNEY INTO THE EXHILARATING CONTEMPORARY CULTURE OF SPAIN: MUSIC AND DANCE PERFORMANCES, TALKS ON FOOTBALL AND POLITICS, AND FOOD, ART, AND FILM EVENTS

WEDNESDAY, 27.11.19

18:30–19:30 Super Clásico: From the Political Arena to the Football Field

Opening Remarks: Moshe Leon, Mayor of Jerusalem, H.E. Manuel Gómez-Acebo, Ambassador of Spain in Israel

Journalist Henrique Cymerman will present the lecture "Barça - Madrid: Rivalry and Excellence in Spain." The lecture will be followed by an interview with H.E. Miguel Ángel Moratinos, UN Under-Secretary-General, High Representative of the United Nations Alliance of Civilizations (UNAOC). Previously, former Minister of Foreign Affairs and Cooperation of Spain, and former EU Special Representative for the Middle East Peace Process.

The event will be held in English.

Photo by Daniel Bar On

21:00–22:00 Colores: A Performance by Yasmin Levy with Pianist Pablo Suarez (Spain)

International singer Yasmin Levy hosts Pablo Suarez, jazz and flamenco pianist from Madrid, in a unique performance produced especially for the festival: an intimate celebration of newly arranged Spanish, Ladino, and Latin classics. In addition to the pieces they present together, both Levy and Suarez will perform solos.

Photo by Ali Taşkıran

Photo by Walter Goyen

THURSDAY, 28.11.19

18:00–19:00 Lullabies and Blood Wedding: A Tribute to Federico García Lorca

Poet and translator Tal Nitzan provides a glimpse into the world of Spanish poet and playwright Federico García Lorca, accompanied by readings of excerpts from I Wish You Were a Woman, a play based on Lorca's Blood Wedding and adapted for a female cast.

Actresses: Shiri Golan, Anat Federchneider, and Michal Weinberg

Directed and adapted by Ira Avneri

19:00–20:00 I Am in the East: Jerusalem–Spain: A Gallery Talk with the Curators of the Exhibition and Artist Jorge Gil (Spain)

The exhibitors are artists from Israel and Spain who show the tension between the work in the local Middle East and the influence of Western culture in general and Spain's culture in particular.

Curators: Ram Ozeri, Vera Pilpoul

In cooperation with the Jerusalem Biennale for Contemporary Jewish Art

The event will be held in Spanish with Hebrew translation.

21:00–22:00 Espacio Potencial: International Contemporary Flamenco Performance Adva Yermiyahu

Internationally renowned artist, dancer and choreographer Adva Yermiyahu hosts leading artists from Spain and Israel in a premiere performance specially produced for the festival, which combines flamenco and performing arts.

Guitarist and Musical Director: Manuel Cazas (Spain)

Guest Dancer: Abel Harana (Spain)

Vocals: Yehuda "Shuky" Shveiky

Double Bass: Gal Maestro

Percussion: Maayan Doari

Artistic Director, choreographer and dancer: Adva Yermiyahu (Israel/Spain)

Photo by Dina Tomer

Photo by Andrea Mercanti

FRIDAY, 29.11.19

11:00–12:30 Spanish Fiesta: A Masterclass on Tasty Morsels from the Spanish and Mediterranean Cuisines

Chefs Samuel Perea (Spain), Victor Gloger (formerly of the Chloélys and Hola restaurants) and Zuzu Hanna (Magdalena restaurant) in a one-of-a-kind culinary session, accompanied by tastings of Spanish, Jewish, and Arab cuisines.

13:00–15:30 High Heels and Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown: Lecture and Film Screening

Fashion critic, designer, and cultural entrepreneur Shachar Atwan on the maze of Almodovar's passions. Following the lecture, the film Volver will be screened (Spain 2006, directed by Pedro Almodovar).

In cooperation with the Jerusalem Cinematheque

Penélope Cruz from Volver

For additional details and ticket purchase:
*9609, mishkenot.org.il

The program is subject to change